

AUTOMATION REPORT

Assembly works during commissioning of railway vehicles

By the customer's request and with maximum travel comfort – company Stadler has manufactured safe rail vehicles for more than 75 years. Stadler company's manufacture is focused on powered vehicles, such as rail motor vehicles, city railways and locomotives. Performance and efficiency of Stadler products is continuously increasing; thus the customers can rely on precise and first-class service.

STADLER

Customers' requirements

- Delivery within the given deadline
- Commissioning of subsystems (HLKVA & doors)
- Elimination and recording of defects
- Testing of lines (LAN, coaxial line, etc.)
- Insulation test

Other services and solutions for rail vehicles from BBC Bircher Automation

- Manufacture of distribution boxes
- Automated manufacture of cable harnesses
- Services in HW engineering area

Benefits for you

- Workers experienced in railway vehicles
- Reliability and meeting deadlines
- Flexible use

BBC Bircher Automation

provides services during commissioning of railway vehicles and before electric equipment installation through experienced and qualified workers. Close cooperation with the customer results in trouble-free work flow. Bircher Automation provides innovative complex solutions of manufacture of switchboards for railway vehicles.

Do you have any questions or a project we can support in?

Address us. We will be pleased if you contact us.

BBC Bircher Automation
Wiesengasse 20
8222 Beringen
Switzerland

www.automation.bircher.com